The Joy of Giving

We are excited to add a session due to popular demand and a packed hall last week. Join us for a motivational talk by renowned value educator and a passionate motivational speaker, Dr. Navneet Arora from India. He is a Professor at IIT, Roorkee by profession and a captivating orator on human values.

Speaking primarily in Hindi, he has a conversational and entertaining style that creates a quick rapport with the audience. He has been in public service arena for over 25 years, speaking on moral values and spirituality as it applies to our day to day lives. He is also the author of several self-improvement books.
